UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT. Action on a Warehouse Bond.

Action on a Warehouse Bond.

Before Judge Woodruff.

The United States vs. Rourke & Girardin.—This was an action to recover $356.53, alleged to be due on a warehouse bond. For the purpose of having the case brought up on a question of law Judge Woodruff directed the Jury to find a verdict for the plaintiff. The question of law to be argued is as follows:—When an importer has put his goods into a bonded warehouse does the law permit the Collector to allow a purchaser from the importer to renove the goods from the warehouse, and then come back upon the importer for the balance of duty due on the goods. Judge Woodruff expressed the opinion that this was a very important question. He also observed that it appeared to be a very poor way of doing business for the Collector to permit goods to be removed from a warehouse before duty on them had been paid.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS-SPECIAL TERM. Sheriff's Attendants at the Court of Oyer and Terminer After Their Pay.

Before Judge Loew. ugust, 1870, ex-Sheriff O'Brien detailed Nicholas In August, 1870, ex-sherin O'Brien detailed Alcadous Moore and six others to attend the sessions of the Court of Oyer and Terminer, and they did so till the end of the year. Their bills, amounting to $229 50 each, were duly audited by the Board of Supervisors, but Mr. Barle, the sudited by the Board of Supervisors, but Mr. Barle, the County Auditor, has steadfastly refused to give to the same his official sanction, and the result has been that the men have been unable to get their pay. Having employed Mr. William F. McNamara as their counsel the latter yesterday made application for a peremptory writ of mandamus against Mr. Earle, directing him to audit the claims Mr. Clarkson, Assistant Corporation Counsel, read affidavits in opposition setting forth that the signatures of the formissioners of Deeds to the vouchers were foregries; and, further, that the Court was in session only about one-third the time. The Court was in session only about one-third the time. read affidavits showing that the vouchers now in the Couptroller's office were copies of the originals on file in the Clerk's office of the Board of Supervisors. As to the other charge, he cited anthorities, showing that constables—such being the legal designation of men summoned by the Sheriff to attend at the Court of Oyer and Terminer—were entitled to be paid for the time they were summoned, and not tor the time only that the Court was in actual session. He also produced a certificate of ex-Sheriff O'Breno of his having summoned the relators to perform the services for which they are seking pay. An alternative mandamus was granted by the Court.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS. The End of "Dutch Harmon."

Before Recorder Hackett.

Among the cases tried in this Court yesterday was an indictment against Harmon Liedendorff for shooting a pistol at Officer Carmick, of the Twenty-ninth precinc who on the night of the 6th of February went to the house of Francis McGovern, No. 630 West Twenty-ninth street of Francis McGovern, No. 520 West Twenty-ninth street, to arrest the prisoner, who is known by the sobriquet of "Dutch Harmon." He pointed something that looked like a pistol at the officer, who heard the cap snap and saw the flash. He jumped out of the window and escaped, but was arrested on the 1st of March. Officer Carmick was in citizen's clothes and was accompanied by two officers in going to make the arrest, but for what offence did not appear. As there was no proof that the pistol was loaded the jury could only convict of a simple assault, which was the verdict. The Recorder sentenced the prisoner to the Penticentary for one year.

Assault With a Knife. Patrick Murphy, a youth, pleaded guilty to assault and battery, the indictment charging that on the 29th of January he cut Robert Hand with a kuife. He was sent to the House of Refug. Larceny of a Watch.

Charles Brown, who on the 5th of this month stole a gold watch worth $250 from Charles E. Connell, pleaded guilty to an attempt at grand larceny. He was sent to the State Prison for two years and six months.

Nathan Gabriel also pleaded guitty to the minor grade of larceny, the charge being that he received two door handles stolen by boys from a residence in Madison avenue, knowing them to have been stolen.

Grace Myers was tried and found guilty of petit larcency, the charge against her being that on the 30th of October she sale two silk suits, a lat and other wearing apparel from a room occupied by Mrs. Starr, at a "ladies" boavding house" in West Thirty first street. There was a technicality in the proof, which resulted in her conviction of the minor offence.

The above named prisoners were each sent to the Penitentiary for six months.

August Marcus, a youth, was tried for petit larceny from the person. Joseph Carl swore that while he was engaged in looking at the monkeys in the Central Park on the 15th of last month, the prisoner four shed a handkerchief before his face and stole eighty cents out of his overcoat pocket: he caught him in the act and handed him over to an officer. Notwithstanding this positive proof the lury believed the boy's statement that he did not commit the offence. As soon as they rendered the verdict of "not guilty" the Recorder in timated to the jury that it was their early take the mission of the jury that it was their early take the mission to court, and that in the statement of t

Curious Case of Forgetfulness.

Curious Case of Forgetfulness.

A man calling himself Herman Rosenberg went into the store of John W. Fowl, No. 61 William street, yesterday and asked for the proprietor. He was shown to Mr. Fowl and at once stated his mission. He said he was a converted Jew, and that his own race had refused to help him because of his conversion to Christianity. He was desirous of going back to his people in Baitimore, and all he wanted was his fare. Mr. Fowl, although a Christian, also refused to help him, but followed him out and saw him go into the office of George Thompson, at No. 7 Wall street. Here the converted farelite strangely forgot his own name, and represented himself as Seigman Mansteld. Mr. Thompson gave him $1 to help him on his way. On the complaint of Mr. Fowl, however, Rosenberg, atias Mansteld, was arrested, and held by Judge Bixhy in $1,000 bail to answer.

Department of Public Works,

Commissionse's Orfere, Rose 19, City Hall,
New York, April 7, 1874.

J. W. Poshar, President of the Broadway and Seventh Avenue Raiirosd Company:

Dear Sire-The season has now fairly begun for the prosecution of such public improvements as have been suspended during winter, and in view of putting so prominent a thoroughtare as Broadway, north of Thirtyfourth street, in condition for public travel as early as possible, this department will use every endeavor to push the work of grading and paving it; and to that end i earnestly request your company to begin at once the placing of your rail tracks in proper position and on the proper grade. The surveyor on the work, Mr. James E. serrell, will give you the necessary lines, and the officers having charge of the work, as well as the contractor, have been instructed to consult with you and to co-operate with you for a rapid prosecution of the work. Yours, respectfully.

The Way the City and the Poor are Robbed-Affidavits Illustrative of Organized Charity and Its Stealings.

Cyrus Philipps, captain of the canal boat Six Brothers, was arraigned before Judge Bixby yes-terday charged with stealing a half ton of coal, valued at $3. The complaint was made the day previous, by one John W. Atwood, of Elizabeth, N. J., who has a contract with the Commissioners of Charities and Correction to supply coal for the poor of the city. His bills are sent to the Commis sioners with the receipt for coal, delivered at the rate of $6 25 a ton. The coal was alleged to have been stolen from one of the canal boats which bring it to the city. Captain Philipps on being examined said that the coal spoken of as stolen was his own property, and was in the bow of the boat. He acknowledged to having sold a half ton of that coal to some per-son one day last week. Furthermore he said that the cause of the complaint was that he asked At-wood for $48 owed to him for freight; also that the complainant for a length of time had carried on

A DELIBERATE SWINDLE in the delivery of the coal paid for by the city, and in no case, to his knowledge, was more than 1,600 pounds given for a ton, and in most cases not more

Judge Bixby thereupon requested Captain Philipps to produce all his witnesses that he might fully examine into the matter. The examination took place yesterday afternoon in the room of the Police Court, when the following affidavits were taken:—
